President's Letter

We had another good PDM this last month. Our speaker, Dan Marino, shared lots of stories about operating a lean supply chain. We have a plant tour of Spirit AeroSystems planned for December that will show you how they manufacture the nose section of the Boeing 787 Dreamliner.

Have you recently moved or changed jobs? If so, please help us keep in touch with you by updating your personal information on the APICS.org website. Just log in there and go to View/Edit my info to update your personal information.
